

INTRODUCTION

Income After Sport (IAS) is an exclusive property investment community created for professionals in sport and entertainment who want to build financial security beyond their careers. Combining specialist property expertise with a deep understanding of the unique financial demands of life in sport, IAS creates bespoke, tax-efficient property portfolios designed to generate sustainable long-term income and capital growth.

From strategy and company formation to mortgages, tenants and ongoing management, IAS provides an end-to-end service that makes building wealth simple, hands-off and purposeful — helping its members turn the success of today into financial freedom for tomorrow.
